

DOUG TREASURE STEPS DOWN AS MCAV PRESIDENT.

At a recent full day meeting of MCAV members and associates, President of the MCAV Doug Treasure announced he was standing down as President due to ill health.

Doug told the meeting he is disappointed that circumstances have caused the decision but told the meeting he needs to concentrate on his health and his family at this time. Doug was thanked by the meeting and received an ovation.

Vice President Chris Commins has taken up the role of MCAV President until the next central council meeting where there will be an election for president.

At the meeting, held at Briagalong, Gippsland, a full discussion on the recent "Get Together" was held.

The financial result of the function was pleasing and the general consensus was that despite the hot weekend the function was very successful.

The many volunteers were thanked including the Howson family for lending their property. Plans are well underway for next year's function with the place and time to be announced shortly.
